PRESS RELEASE

CÉDRIC GROLET PRESENTS HIS SUMMER COLLECTION FOR LE MEURICE

Paris, June 22, 2023 – This summer Cédric Grolet and François Deshayes, his deputy pastry chef at Le Meurice, are proposing a collection that evokes the scents of Provence. Exclusive new delicacies, ever-more impressive trompe l'œil and associations of summer flavours... the chefs have conjured up some wonderful surprises for you!

It is from Provence – a sun-drenched region brimming with colourful fruit and fresh herbs – that the chefs drew their inspiration for their new menu, with the idea of associating the scents of southern France with sculpted fruit. Thus, the strawberry is enhanced with a touch of lemon balm, the cherry is livened up by marjoram, the apricot forms a duo with rosemary, the raspberry is wedded to thyme and the flat peach is dressed with a hint of verbena.

For the first time and exclusively, the chefs are also proposing a blackberry associated with oregano, a myrtle with a spot of sage and a redcurrant that you'll be able to enjoy au naturel.

As for the tarts, the red fruit – raspberries and strawberries – are placed in pretty, plaited flaky brioche baskets, that come in several sizes.

Lastly, Provence is inseparable from Calissons. For this exclusive collection, the chefs have worked the emblematic sweetness of the South of France. All the flavoursome markers in a reworked recipe: almond biscuits soaked in a light orange / melon syrup, orange gel and melon gel, all coated with a light orange-scented mousse – a guilty pleasure that they propose as an individual portion or XXL for a convivial moment. The temperature is rising, the sun is back, summer can at last get off to a gentle start.

The summer collection is available starting from 7th June in the boutique and on the website <https://www.dorchestercollection.com/fr/paris/le-meurice/restaurants-bars/patisserie-meurice/>
