GO BEHIND THE SCENES AT MILAN'S FAMOUS LANDMARKS

There is much to explore in Milan, and Hotel Principe di Savoia can offer guests behind-the-scenes access and private guided tours of some of the city's most amazing landmarks including:

Sforzesco Castle

Built in the 15th century by Francesco Sforza, Castello Sforzesco houses several of the city's art collections and museums. The castle was home to the powerful ruler of renaissance Milan, Duke Ludovico il Moro (son of Francesco), who employed da Vinci between 1482-1499. Located in Biblioteca Trivulziana, the castle's library, is the Codex Trivulzianus, which includes the artist's studies in architecture and religion.

Museum of Science and Technology

The museum, the largest science and technology museum in Italy, is dedicated to engineer, painter and scientist, Leonardo da Vinci, and features numerous models of his machines and paintings. The museum is housed in the ancient monastery of San Vittore al Corpo in Milan.

La Scala Theatre

Teatro alla Scala (or La Scala) is a world-famous opera house, widely regarded as one of the leading operas and ballet houses in the world. Dating back to 1778, Italy's greatest opera stars have appeared on its stage and La Scala premiered works such as Verdi's Otello and Puccini's Madame Butterfly. The experience includes a visit to the museum, theatre and "behind-the-scenes" access to the cast areas and the stage.
