

PRESS RELEASE

THE RENATA FRANÇA METHOD MAKES ITS ENTRANCE AT THE MEURICE'S SPA VALMONT!

Paris, March, 2023 – As spring begins, Le Spa Valmont pour Le Meurice invites its clients to come and discover the Renata França method* lymphatic massage, an acknowledged manual massage technique that restores a sensation of lightness and wellbeing.

Entirely tailor made, the experience begins with a diagnostic to determine the origin of the feeling of heaviness.

Depending on the cause that has been determined, the therapist will perform targeted firm and rhythmic pressure movements making it possible to stimulate the lymphatic, blood, venous and digestive circulation. The goal: to detoxify the organism while strengthening the immune system, with result which can be seen right from the first session.

The care ends with an exchange with the therapist to optimise the benefits of the session over time. A course can also be proposed with one session per week, with the length of the course being personalised as required.

Tailor made care for the lightest of summers.

*Renata França method: hailing from Brazil, Renata França has revolutionised the world of massage with the creation of her own, eponymous method. This massage technique with miraculous virtues has never ceased to make itself known by word of mouth, attracting more and more followers and celebrities. In view of this growing success, the method is spreading internationally, with the creation of dedicated training courses. Today, it is recognised worldwide.
